- 3.3 Political Involvement. The organization shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office, or devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation.
- 3.4 Authority. The organization shall work with the schools to encourage, foster and support quality education for all students and shall seek to participate in the decision-making process establishing school policy, recognizing that the legal responsibility to make decisions has been delegated by the people to the board of education, state education authorities and local education authorities.
- 3.5 Earnings. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, officers or other private persons except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, to reimburse its members, officers or other private persons for normal and extraordinary expenses incurred on behalf of the PSO, and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Section 1 hereof.
- 3.6 Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of any unit, after paying or adequately providing for its debts and obligations, the remaining assets of such unit shall be distributed to the PSO Council. Upon dissolution of all units and the PSO Council, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the PSO organization, the remaining assets shall be distribution to one or more non-profits funds, foundations or organization which have established their tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 4
Membership

- 4.1 Membership. Membership in units of this PSO is open to all parents and/or legal guardians of students in the school system, all currently enrolled students at Brecksville-Broadview Heights High School, all current staff members of the district and anyone with an interest in the school system. Membership shall be made available without regard to race, color, creed, gender or national origin. Each unit shall conduct an annual enrollment of members, but may admit persons to membership at any time.
- 4.2 Unit Dues. To remain in good standing, each member of a unit must pay annual dues to that unit as determined by the PSO Council. Only those members in good standing shall be eligible to vote on issues before the membership, to present motions, to elect officers and to serve in elective or appointive positions.
- 4.3 Council Dues. Each unit shall remit annually to the PSO Council an equal amount of dues, as determined by the PSO Council, to support the operation of the Council.

Section 5
Meetings

- 5.1 Regular Meetings. The PSO Council shall meet regularly during the school year at such time and place as determined by the Council officers before the beginning of each school year. PSO units shall meet regularly during the school year at such time and place as determined by the unit officers before the beginning of each school year. The schedule of all regular meetings shall be published in advance to the membership by any reasonable means.
- 5.2 Special Meeting. Special meeting of the PSO Council may be called by the president or by a majority of officers, with at least two (2) days notice having been given. Special meeting of the units may be called by the unit president or by a majority of unit officers, with at least seven (7) days notice having been given. Unless a different type of notice is expressly required by any other provision of these Bylaws, notice is expressly required by any other provision of these Bylaws, notice of a special meeting shall be provided to each Council or unit voting member either by home delivery, mail, telephone or electronic communication.

- 7.9 Resignation. A unit officer may resign at any time by delivering his or her written resignation to any other officer of the PSO Council. The resignation shall be immediately effective, unless a later date is set forth in the written resignation.

- 7.10 Removal. Any unit officer may be removed, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the majority of the unit members then in office and present at any meeting at which a quorum is present. Five (5) days prior written notice of such proposed removal must be give to all unit members.
- 7.11 Vacancies. Unit officers shall elect a successor to fill any vacancy created among the unit officers.

Section 8 Fiscal Year

Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the PSO Council and units shall be the period beginning July 1 and ending June 30.

Section 9 Finances

- 9.1 Tax Forms. The Council Treasurer shall be responsible, on behalf of this organization, for filing any and all tax forms required by law.
- 9.2 Checks. All checks issued by the Council and units shall be prepared by their respective Treasurers and signed by the respective Presidents or 1st Vice Presidents.
- 9.3 Contracts. Contracts will be authorized according to the specifications of the standing rules of the council or units.

Section 10 Amendments

- 10.1 Proposal of Amendments. Amendments to these bylaws may be proposed at any Council meeting by any unit through their President or Council Delegate(s), or by any voting member of Council. The amendment will only be effective upon approval by a majority of the units and by the PSO Council as described in Section 10.2 and 10.3.
- 10.2 Individual Units. Delegates from each unit must present any proposed amendment to the bylaws for discussion at their next regular meeting. The unit shall then vote on the amendment at its meeting following the meeting at which the discussion takes place. A majority of the members in good stand voting at the meeting is required for unit approval.

10.3 Council Vote. A Council vote on any proposed amendment will take place at the first meeting after all units have noted on the proposal. A majority of those Council members in good standing and voting shall be required to approve the amendment.

Section 11
Dissolution

Dissolution. Any unit may be dissolved upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present at any unit meeting at which a quorum is present and acting. Written notice of a meeting of members at which vote is to be taken to dissolve the unit shall be given to all the members of that unit at least 14 days in advance of such meeting. The officers shall thereupon take such actions as may be necessary to wind up the affairs of the unit and to effect termination of its corporate existence. Members shall vote to determine the distribution of the property and assets of the organization for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code. Any such assets not so disposed shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of Cuyahoga County, Ohio, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as the court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such charitable purposes.
