Highland Drive PSO

September 5, 2016 Weekly update

Welcome

Hello Highland Families and Highland Bees! Here's the buzz - -

If you have not already joined our PSO or sent in your PSO Volunteer Form, please do so. We appreciate your support.

Please join us this Friday at Elementary Tailgating at the Middle School grassy area in the rear parking lot for-Fun, Food and FOOTBALL! Bring your football to toss and the kids can have their faces painted or hair sprayed to show their Bees Spirit. Subway / Brecksville is taking part in the celebration and offering 15% of all sales back to the schools so please keep that option in mind when considering dinner options for the night. Joe Muller, the High School Principal, is working on allowing access for Elementary Tailgaters to get into the concession area during the tailgating time to purchase food and then return to the Tailgating Party. So, if that is approved, purchasing food from the concession stand for dinner that night would be another option that families can consider. Details below.

We would like to announce our winners of the Silent Auction from our Back to School Bash. Congratulations
